CONSENT AGREEMENT/ORDER

The Louisiana State Board of Practical Nurse Examiners does hereby offer this consent agreement/order to Selina Floyd, applicant for licensure, based on the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

On September 24, 2013, the applicant submitted her application for endorsement to the State of Louisiana. The applicant answered "NO" to the question that asks the following:

"Have you ever been denied a license, or has your license ever been disciplined by any nursing board in any jurisdiction, voluntarily surrendered your license, entered into an agreement restricting or monitoring practice, or are there charges pending against you in any state or jurisdiction?"

However, the board received information indicating that action had been taken on the applicants' Mississippi practical nursing license. This information revealed that on May 21, 2010, the applicant entered into an agreed order with the State of Mississippi Board of Nursing in that the respondent falsified or made incorrect entries or failed to make essential entries on records while working.

On December 12, 2013, the board received the applicants' narrative and copy of the agreed order the applicant entered with the State of Mississippi Board of Nursing. All stipulations of the order were successfully completed.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the evidence submitted, the board has concluded that Ms. Floyd is in violation of the following provisions of Louisiana Revised Statutes, Title 37, Chapter 11. Nurses, Part II. Practical Nurses, Section 969 A. (4):
