The respondent later indicated that she had no intention of being untruthful, but had reported the information the best she could recall. The battery arrest in 2001 resulted when she fought off a man who was behaving inappropriately towards her. She was a minor at the time. The charge was nolle prossed. Following her OWI charge in 2003, she completed a probationary period and the matter was later expunged. In March of 2005, an argument between the respondent and her brother resulted in a simple battery charge. That charge was nolle prossed. The domestic abuse battery charge in September of 2005 was due to a fight with her partner. The charges were rejected by the district attorney.

The board has received court documents related to the above arrests and all matters are cleared with the court. The respondent has had no arrests since 2005.
